Wilmington Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wilmington, N. C., March 26.—A number of pleasant social events are scheduled for next week, following the conclusion of the Lenten season, among the principal events will be an annual Easter dances of the two main clubs of the city. The first of the two dances will be that of the Artios German Club, which is set for the evening of March 31. This will be followed two evenings later with that of the L'Agile Cotillon Club. Both dances will be given in a handsome ballroom of the Atlantic Temple. In addition to the dances, a number of receptions, card parties and informal affairs are scheduled for the first few days following Easter. The Saturday Evening Club, an organization among the young society men, the purpose of which is to hold a dance every Saturday evening, will also resume its operations beginning the first Saturday after Easter, and continuing until the 15th season opens. The most prominent Wilmington musicians have organized a Choral Society for this city. The organization meeting was held in the Young Men's Christian Association parlors and there were about seventy-five cultivated musicians in attendance. Officers were elected and the association was given upon a firm basis. Plans have been inaugurated for an elaborate May festival, which will be held here about the middle of May. The Choral Society will number about 100 voices, and will be under the leadership of E. H. Munson, an accomplished organist and director of this city. The membership of the society will be divided into active and associate members. The active will be those embraced in the choral work, and the associate members those who assist in the executive department of the association. It is planned to secure a large orchestra and many soloists from Northern musical circles to aid in the musical festival, which is planned. The exact dates for the festival will be announced in the immediate future, and it is planned to make the event the most elaborate of its kind ever held in Wilmington. The Feast of Purim, one of the most solemn ceremonies in the calendar of the Jewish Church was appropriately celebrated here, in the afternoon on the first day of the celebration a dance for the children was held in Harmony Circle Club rooms. This dance was for the younger people numbered in the congregation of the Temple of Israel, and the dance was in accordance with the custom of the Purim festival. The dance commenced at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon and continued until 9 o'clock in the evening. Many adults visited the dancing. The following day the Purim festival was concluded with a solemn service held in the Temple of Israel. This service was conducted by Rev. S. Mendelsohn, D. D., rabbi of the Temple of Israel. The exercises were beautiful and impressive, and served at a fitting conclusion to the Feast of Purim.

high carnival during the next few days. Easter in Winston-Salem is always one of the most generally observed holidays of the year. The celebration opened this afternoon by the baseball fans, who were out in full force to attend the first real game of the season, the contestants being the teams from the University and Davidson College. There are several hundred visitors here, the hotels and boarding-houses being crowded. Many were attracted here by the beautiful and always impressive Moravian Easter sunrise service, which will be held on the Moravian graveyard tomorrow morning, provided, of course, that the weather will permit. It will be conducted by Bishop Randolph and Rev. J. K. Pfuhl, pastor of the Home Church. The attendance upon this service is expected to be not less than 8,000. Monday morning and evening the Twin City Club will give the Annual Easter game. In the afternoon another baseball game will be played at Piedmont Park, the teams being from the Carolina University and Lafayette College.

Much interest is here in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Rilla Eddy Garrison, of Boston, and William Lawrence Reid, of this city. The marriage will be celebrated in June. Miss Garrison was the instructor in elocution at the Salem Female College the past two sessions. Mr. Reid is one of the Twin City's popular young business men.

The local members of the Greensboro Female College Alumnae Association held a most delightful meeting last Friday at the home of Miss Ida Hinshaw. Announcement was made that when the college was destroyed a few years ago by fire, all of the record books of the institution were burned, and that Mrs. Robertson, the president, is now endeavoring to get a complete list of all former pupils, the year into they were at college, and both former and present names and addresses.

Miss Elizabeth Duncan, of Raleigh, a pupil at the Salem College, who was operated upon for appendicitis at the hospital three weeks ago, was able to leave for home a few days ago. She was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Carl Duncan. Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Summers returned Thursday from a trip to New York and Baltimore. Dr. Summers accompanied Ex-Judge and Mrs. H. R. Starbuck to New York City, where they carried their little son to be treated by a specialist.

A. & M. Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] West Raleigh, N. C., March 26.—The Young Men's Christian Association of the college has arranged for a series of eight lectures on the characters of the Bible, to be held every Tuesday evening by the pastors of the different churches of Raleigh.
